

Come to the Peace News Summer Camp

OXFORDSHIRE

23-27 JULY 2010

Join people from across the broad spectrum of the British peace movement for five days of exploration, celebration and empowerment.

“Fascinating and engaging discussions, debates and conversations seemed to be taking place all the time all over the camp. Fantastic networking amongst groups and individuals” A 2009 PN Summer Camper empowering, inviting, sharing, training, creativity, community-building, play, learning, entertainment ... come to the Peace News Summer Camp, Oxfordshire, 23-27 July 2010

Bring your contribution to a hothouse of creativity, a small self-governed society run by democratic camp meetings, a viable example of the kind of world we are trying to bring about. The Peace News Summer Camp helps build a radical movement for the future by building a living community today.

Fed by local organic fruit and veg (lovingly cooked by the wonderful Veggies of Nottingham), we are camping in a family-friendly and renewably-powered way from 23-27 July near Faringdon, Oxfordshire, to make the world a better place.

Find out more and book your place on-line or by sending us the tear-off slip.

There will be over 40 workshops and sessions on the following themes:

Feminism and peace: gender perspectives on violence, nonviolence and activism

Building our skills, sharing our skills: nonviolent direct action training, consensus decision making, building a strategy, working in affinity groups, public speaking skills, radical music and more.

Challenging the military: Let's get the military out of our lives and out of other peoples' countries

Engaging with other movements and struggles: what can we learn from other like-minded campaigns such as radical climate activism, animal rights, student activism and European peace campaigns

Radicalising our lives: food, education, power production and more

Debating nonviolence: How can we take effective action?
